

"Every Child Matters to God"

To imbue the agenda with Christian values the church school can:

Christian values	Be healthy Look after the body (and spirit) that God made
Faith	<ul> <li>create opportunities in the school day for prayer, worship, reflection, stillness</li> </ul>
Worship	• provide opportunities to develop in the Christian faith, and to respect
Prayer	<ul> <li>those of a different faith or no faith position.</li> <li>look at relationships and health in the light of moral, cultural, and</li> </ul>
	faith values
	Stay safe Trust in God
Trust	• ensure that pupils are able to practise their faith without fear of Challenging	prejudice or bullying
injustice	• promote, within the Christian ethos, self-worth, self-respect and trust
Justice	• foster an atmosphere of respect and listening where concerns can be voiced and questions raised, and then appropriate action taken
Peace
	Enjoy and achieve Use your talents
Using talents	<ul> <li>praise and celebrate achievements in all fields</li> </ul>
Comp talents	• provide opportunities for pupils to express their learning in a variety
Joy	of ways
Perseverance	<ul> <li>emphasise that humans do fail at times and that we can learn from our failures too</li> </ul>
	Make a positive contribution Be generous • demonstrate ways of living based on Christian values in the context of a society which may have different values, (including giving and

Although the organisation and presentation are original, the idea to subvert the ECM agenda came from Lichfield Diocese. Some of the ideas have been taken from paper by Chris Shepherd (Diocese of Salisbury) and others from a Methodist and Anglican collaboration: "Every child matters - all precious in God's sight".
